(h) Institute inquiries either generally or for particular purposes, if the activities of the CSOs are not in compliance with this Act or any other relevant laws of the Country;

(i) Examine the books, records and activities of CSOs when required;

(j) Keep a public register of CSOs as described in section 27 of this Act;

(k) Add or remove any body or institution from the list of registered CSOs for violations of this Act or any other law of Bhutan or law of any other country where that CSO may be operating; and

(l) Carry out other related powers and responsibilities prescribed in this Act.
Endowment Fund Limit
16. The Authority shall prescribe endowment fund limit for the MBO from time to time.

Supervision
17. The Authority may on its own motion or upon the application of another person inquire into a CSOs’:

(a) Administration or management;
(b) Value, condition, management or application of their property or income; or
(c) Entitlements and privileges, including exemptions from taxes and customs duties.

18. Where an application is made under section 17, the applicant shall furnish such information in connection with the application as to enable the Authority to determine whether there are reasonable grounds for making the inquiry.

19. For the purpose of any inquiry, the Authority may require any person to:

(a) Furnish accounts and statements in writing with respect to any matter in question at the inquiry;
(b) Furnish copies of documents in his custody or under his control which relate to any matter in question at the inquiry; or
(c) Attend at a specified time and place and give evidence or produce any such documents.

Office
20. The Authority shall establish an office for carrying out its functions and responsibilities under this Act.

21. The Authority shall be supported by administrative machinery staffed by civil servants as per the Civil Service Rules and Regulations. The Authority may incur expenditures that are required for carrying out its functions and responsibilities under this Act.

Chapter 5
Registration and Establishment

Registration
22. Except otherwise exempted by this Act, all CSOs shall register with the Authority under this Act.
Notification and Application
23. CSOs that have already been established or created shall submit to the Authority within three months of the commencement of this Act, a duly completed application for registration except as otherwise exempt under this Act.

24. The Authority shall issue a Certificate of Registration upon determining that the application meets the requirements prescribed under this Act.

Requirements for the Establishment of CSOs
25. A Bhutanese citizen may establish a CSO by submitting the required documents and information declaring:

(a) That he is a Bhutanese citizen as evidenced by a Citizenship Card;
(b) The income and assets of himself, his spouse, and dependent children;
(c) His bio-data and educational qualifications; and
(d) His records of criminal convictions, if any.

Registration Fee
26. The Authority shall prescribe fee for registration of any CSO.
27. The office established under the Authority shall maintain:

(a) A register recording all CSOs, which shall be made available for viewing by any member of the public during regular business hours at the Authority’s office or on the internet, listing all CSOs that are or were operating or authorized to operate in Bhutan, and stating each CSO’s name, address and telephone number, the names of the members of its governing board and its chief executive officer, the CSO’s general purposes, the total amount of the CSO’s current assets, liabilities, income and expenditures, and the date of its dissolution or of its loss, termination or cancellation of registration; and

(b) An annual record of the total amount of contributions received and made to each CSO.

Effects of Registration
28. The CSOs established under this Act shall acquire juridical status from the date the Authority issues a Certificate of Registration under its official seal.
29. The Certificate of Registration issued by the Authority shall be conclusive evidence that the body or institution is duly registered in accordance with this Act unless it is proved that the registration thereof has been cancelled.

30. In case of an appeal to the Court with regard to registration, the Authority shall issue the Certificate based on the decision of the Court.

31. A CSO which has been registered shall discharge its functions and responsibilities in accordance with this Act.

Cancellation of Registration Due to Cessation of Activities

32. If a CSO has ceased for a period of at least two years to carry out the purposes and activities set forth in its Article of Association, its registration shall be cancelled.

Contributions and Property Not Used For Intended Purposes

33. If money or other property contributed to or owned by a CSO is used for other purposes and activities not set-forth in the Article of Association at the time of registration, such money or other property shall cease to be the property of the CSO, and its registration may be cancelled.
Removal from the Register

34. If the removal of an organization is due to any change in its purpose, the removal shall take effect from the date of that change.

35. A CSO, which is for the time being registered under this Act shall be voluntarily removed from the register if it so requests.

36. It is the duty of each registered CSO to report to the Authority:

   (a) If the organization ceases to exist; and
   (b) Supply the Authority with particulars of any significant change in its purpose or in the information entered in the register.

37. Prior to the cancellation of a CSO’s registration, its board of trustees shall be given at least three months advance written notice of the intention to cancel the registration, within which period the organization or institution shall be given the opportunity either to resume carrying out the purposes and activities set forth, or else present good reasons why the registration should not be cancelled.
Exemption from Taxes
38. A registered CSO shall be exempt from the payment of income tax on income or other gains which it has earned as a result of investing its endowed property or other funds in accordance with regulations promulgated by the Department of Revenue and Customs.

39. PBOs may be granted exemptions from payment of customs duties or other taxes besides income taxe, on a case by case basis in accordance with regulations and procedures issued jointly by the Authority and the Department of Revenue and Customs.

40. MBOs shall not be entitled to receive any of the exemptions granted to PBOs under the preceding sections of this Act, except on a case by case basis in accordance with regulations and procedures issued jointly by the Authority and the Department of Revenue and Customs.

Objections to Registration
41. The Authority may refuse to register any organization as a CSO where, in its opinion:
