MARRIAGE APPLICATION CHECKLIST FOR FOREIGNER SPOUSE
FORM 7 (Foreigner Spouse)

Each person applying for the marriage certificate must produce the following documents.

- [ ] An order from the High Court which has not lapsed three months.
- [ ] A certificate of consent and certificate stating the marital status signed by parents/head of the family/two relatives/ adopted or foster parents/Court.
- [ ] A relationship certificate to establish the parent-children/relatives relationship.
- [ ] Copy of adoption documents or any document evidencing foster relationship.
- [ ] Single Status Certificate of the applicants.
- [ ] Two sureties, a male surety for the bridegroom and a female surety for the bride. Of the two sureties, one must be a Bhutanese citizen and acceptable by the Court and should be well acquainted with the couple.
- [ ] A certified copy of voter ID card/passport/Residential permit.
- [ ] A certified copy of Visa.
- [ ] Three recent passport size photographs.
- [ ] A copy of the passport of parents/head of the family/two relatives/foster/adopted parents and of any person from whom a certificate of certificate of consent and certificate stating the marital status is obtained.
- [ ] A copy of divorce agreement/final decree of divorce, if previously married and divorced evidencing lapse of one year.
- [ ] A copy of death certificate of the deceased spouse, if previously married and widowed.
- [ ] A copy of birth certificate of the child/children if any or declaration otherwise.
- [ ] Affidavit Form No.8 (KA).
- [ ] Any document in support of Form 7 and 8 KA), and other necessary document as deemed necessary by the Court.
- [ ] Establish a fact to the satisfaction of the court that they had been associated with each other for atleast a minimum of one year.
- [ ] A certified copy of Clearance Certificate from competent authority stating that he or she is not convicted of criminal offence.
- [ ] Proof of one year lapsed after the Marriage Certificate is denied by the Court.
- [ ] Proof of exiting Bhutan within one month from the date of divorce.