

Judgment No:

- (1) Mr. Date of Birth..... Citizenship Identity Card/Passport No..... Father/Mother’s Name Thram No..... House No..... Village.....Gewog.....Dzongkhag.....Country... Religion..... Occupation.....

- (2) Ms..... Date of Birth..... Citizenship Identity Card/Passport No..... Father/Mother’s Name Thram No..... House No..... Village.....Gewog.....Dzongkhag.....Country.....ReligionOccupation.....

ORDER

Hereinafter, the Judiciary as the competent authority solemnizes and recognizes the marriage between two people to help and comfort one another in prosperity and adversity. Even if the knot of the silken scarf falls apart, their bond of marriage, bounded by a silken scarf, shall not collapse. Even if the life ends, the solemn vow of marriage shall not be deluded, As long as liveliness continues and until that time, with the perfect insignia and divination of three fold perfection, may the married couple possess children and wealth in abundance. The Parties are considered legally married as per Section 1.7 of the Marriage Act of Bhutan on this day..... of 2015

(Signature of the Judge)